Visitors / Public Comment

Several residents from West Highland Avenue and West Hoke Street were present to inquire what decision Council intends to make regarding the recent tar and chip street project. Engineer Knouse and Manager Shaffer explained the thought process for the placement of tar and chipping of those streets/alleys. It was explained that at this point in the season, (street projects using Liquid Fuels money must be completed by October 15th) it would not be possible to pursue any further improvement to the surface.
